You are cordially invited to participate in the Northern Illinois AATG Spring Meeting and Workshop on April 21, 2012! John Stark and Roma Schultz will discuss art in the classroom and lead us through various activities for different student levels involving the exploration of German art at the Art Institute Chicago. We will spend a substantial amount of time in the new wing, but will also explore paintings in the old building. The visit to the Art Institute will start with a 30-minute orientation session to the Educator Center, in which you will become familiar with the available resources for instructors. You will also receive a FREE PASS that will let you attend the Art Institute at no cost until the end of the academic year.

8:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m.	Breakfast in the Goethe-Institut Chicago Pastries, fruit, coffee, tea, juice (included in registration fee)
9:00 a.m. - 9:30 a.m.	Business Meeting in the Goethe-Institut Chicago
9:30 a.m. - 10:15 a.m.	Roma Schultz, John Stark Introduction to working with art in and outside of the classroom
10:15 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.	Walk over to Art Institute (about 5-10 minutes)
10:30 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.	Orientation to Educator Center in the Art Institute
11:00 am - 12:30 p.m.	Treasure-Hunt / Schatzsuche Activities in the Art Institute
12:30 pm - 1:00 p.m.	Wrap-up and evaluation

Lunch is on your own. Groups may consider going to the Berghoff Restaurant or to Millennium Park or to Terzo Piano, the restaurant in the new wing of the Art Institute.
